

Analyze it! Photographs

Look at their hats! How are the passengers dressed? What does that tell you about when the photo was taken? What does it tell you about this train ride?

The photograph looks old & a little damaged. It is black and white.

It looks like there are curtains. Why would the train need them?

Is this a formal or informal photo? Does it look like people were caught in the middle of action or posed and waiting? Why do you think someone took this picture?

What do you notice about the way this man is dressed? What does that tell you about him?

What could this number mean? Do you think it's important to understanding the photo?

Why is this boy by himself? Will he get on the train? Does he work there?

What does this sign tell you about this photo? What information can you learn from it?

The photo has been mounted and saved, although it shows wear.