

NAME: _____

CROSSWORD PUZZLE: REMEMBERING THE CIVIL WAR

Across:

1. John Parker Hale, who spoke out against slavery, became known as the first _____ senator in the United States.
4. Because Franklin Pierce was not a very popular U.S. president, there was a lot of _____ surrounding the decision of placing a statue of him in front of the State House.
7. After the Civil War ended, many _____ were put up around the country to honor the men who fought in the war.
8. The _____ is where the flags of each New Hampshire regiment are on display in the State House.

Down:

2. A word used to describe the dividing of the United States into two sections in response to slavery: a northern section which did not have slavery and a southern section which did.
3. The Battle of _____ in July 1863 proved to be the turning point of the Civil War.
5. _____ on Lake Winnepesaukee became the permanent location of veteran reunions.
6. The name of the fort in Charleston, South Carolina, where the fighting of the Civil War began.
9. Harriet Dame was so important to the soldiers she served that she was given the nickname, "_____ of the Battlefield."
10. The _____ New Hampshire was the most famous regiment of Granite State soldiers because they fought in some of the worst battles of the war.