

IMMIGRATION'S IMPACT ON NEW HAMPSHIRE

Immigrants who came to New Hampshire during the Great Wave made an impact that has lasted until today.

Immigrants worked as loggers, cutting down trees for building and making paper.

BERLIN

JACKSON

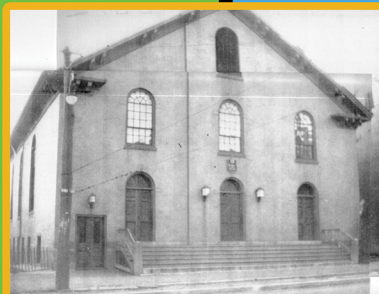

Skiing, one of New Hampshire's favorite winter activities, came from immigrants from Sweden and Norway.

Swenson Granite quarries were started by a Swedish immigrant. This granite is in the New Hampshire State House, the Library of Congress, and Quincy Market in Boston.

CONCORD ★

Many Russian-Jewish families settled in the Puddle Dock neighborhood in Portsmouth. They founded Temple Israel, the first Jewish house of worship in New Hampshire.

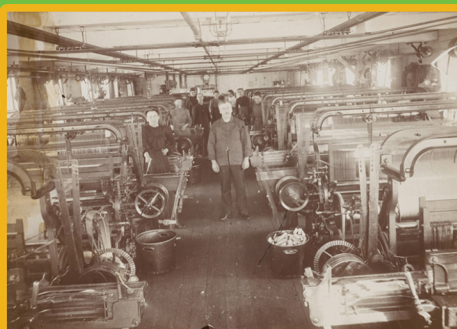

PORTSMOUTH

KEENE

MANCHESTER

Immigrants started lots of small businesses around the state that still exist today, like Keene Auto Body, which was started by a Finnish immigrant and is still owned by his grandson.

Mills helped grow New Hampshire's cities and economy, and many mill workers were immigrants from Canada and Europe.

Immigrants had an impact on food in New Hampshire. So many people from Greece came to New Hampshire that we have lots of places that serve Greek pizza!

1. Which of these impacts were you familiar with?
2. Which impact would you have chosen for your family to have made? Why?
3. What can you find in your community that is influenced by immigrants?