

UNIT 13 VOCABULARY LIST

artisan	(noun) Someone who creates crafts and works of art for profit artist-in-residence	(noun) Artists who lived at grand resort hotels for the summer months. They would produce works of art to sell to the hotel's visitors.
camp	(noun) A location with temporary or simple shelters like tents or huts that became a popular choice of accommodation for tourists to New Hampshire in the 19th century boardinghouse	(noun) A house that provides food and rooms for paying guests brochure	(noun) A paper with attractive pictures and information about a topic carriage ride	(noun) Going for a drive in a four-wheeled passenger vehicle pulled by horses carriage road	(noun) A road wide enough for carriage that usually traveled to or through an attractive location cog railway	(noun) A steep mountain railroad that has a center rail with teeth on the edge. The teeth are grabbed by a cogwheel under a train engine which prevents the train from slipping. commercial	(adjective) Making or intending to make a profit freight	(noun) Goods carried by train or truck grand resort hotels	(noun) Large hotels where guests come to stay for an extended period of time and find dining and recreational experiences on-site

UNIT 13 VOCABULARY LIST

infrastructure	(noun) Human-made features that help a society function, including railroads, bridges, and road systems landscape	(noun) A view of an outdoor setting lean-to	(noun) A structure that has three walls and a slanted roof leisure	(noun) Using free time for enjoyment luxuries	(noun) An expensive but unnecessary item that is nice to have notch	(noun) A rugged pass through mountains pollute	(verb) To put harmful or poisonous material into something rural	(adjective) An area of land that is primarily used for farming, where there are no large towns or cities scenic	(noun) Something that has impressive or beautiful views of nature souvenir	(noun) An item purchased or collected to remember an experience stagecoach	(noun) A horse-drawn passenger and mail coach running on a regular schedule between established stops stereoscope	(noun) A tool for viewing photograph cards with two of the same image printed side-by-side. The lenses of a stereoscope allow the viewer to see the image in 3-D.
summit	(noun) The highest point of a mountain or hill

UNIT 13 VOCABULARY LIST

tavern	(noun) A place where travelers can stop for a meal and, especially long ago, stay overnight timetable	(noun) A schedule of departures and arrivals at stations along a route tourism	(noun) Travel for recreation tragedy	(noun) An event causing great sadness and suffering trolley line	(noun) A set of rails on which a vehicle that uses electricity to move can travel turnpike	(noun) A road built for heavy travel on which travelers pay a toll waterway	(noun) A body of water that boats can travel on