

NAME: _____

WHAT DO TREES GIVE US?

People have been using trees as a natural resource for thousands of years. A natural resource is something that is found in nature and can be used by people to create different items.

Using the tree diagram below, label as many items as you can that come from each part of the tree.

