

NH TOURISTS IN THE 19TH AND 20TH CENTURIES

Tourists have been visiting New Hampshire since the early 1800s, but the way they traveled to the state and what they did once they got here changed a lot between then and the 20th century.

Using the Venn diagram below, list the similarities and differences between what tourists in the 19th and 20th centuries did for fun in New Hampshire. Who was visiting the state? Where did they stay? How did they get here? What activities did they do? How long did they stay?

