

Lesson 18.7: Rights & Responsibilities

The Noisy Neighbor

Dave lives in the first-floor apartment of a house. He gets up early every morning to go to his job as a sanitation worker. After a long day of hard work, he looks forward to coming home to relax and get a good night's sleep. Rosie, a professional trombone player, recently moved into the second-floor apartment. She spends the day teaching music lessons and recording music for commercials. When she comes home at night, she spends at least three hours practicing her trombone. Dave is disturbed by the noise and isn't able to get enough sleep.

Discuss the scenario:

What does Dave need?

What does Rosie need?

What problem do they have meeting those needs?

How could they solve this problem?

Rights Need Responsibilities

Citizens in a democracy should act responsibly in order to have and protect rights that come with democratic government. Cut the examples of responsibilities and paste them under the correct category of rights.

The right to express yourself freely	The right to practice your religion	The right to be treated equally	The right to be treated fairly by government	The right to vote and run for office

Lesson 18.7: Rights & Responsibilities

Read about candidates and their positions on issues that are important to you.	Contact your representatives if you feel a bill or a law is unfair.	If you are running for office, connect with the people you will represent to learn about their concerns and needs.	Be an informed citizen! Learn about the laws in the place where you live so that you can act appropriately in shared spaces.
Free Space! Write your own idea for a responsibility:	Register to vote when you are 18 years old. Know where and when to vote.	Get to know other people and cultures! Try not to make judgments about others simply based on what you see.	Express your opinions in a way that does not cause physical harm to yourself or others.
Speak up if you see someone being treated differently because of their race, gender, or ethnicity.	Join groups and activities that help you safely connect with others and share your interests.	Use media responsibly and look for reliable sources when writing articles or posting information online.	Respect the right of others to have different religious beliefs from you.

Rights and Responsibilities Reflection

1. What does "I have the right to . . ." mean to you?
2. Why do rights need responsibilities?
3. Look closely at the image you have chosen. What right do you think this image shows?
4. What responsibilities do you think come with having the right shown by the image?
