

FIRST IMPRESSIONS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

When English settlers first came to New Hampshire, what they saw and experienced was very different from what they were used to in England.

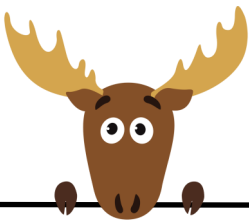

Imagine you are an English settler who has just arrived in New Hampshire. Use your five senses to think about what it was like to see this new land called New Hampshire for the first time.

What do I hear?

What do I see?

What do I touch?

What do I smell?

What do I taste?
