

FIND YOUR WAY: CROWN POINT ROAD

When the French and Indian War broke out, most of the fighting was happening in New York, but New Hampshire soldiers still wanted to help out. They created the Crown Point Road, which cut through the mountains and forests of Vermont, to supply New York's troops with additional supplies.

Imagine you are one of those New Hampshire soldiers who built the Crown Point Road. Can you figure out this maze to find your way through the mountains of Vermont?
