I SPY! POLLY FOSTER'S SAMPLER

In 18th-century New Hampshire, girls in farming families made samplers, like the one below, to practice their sewing skills. Often the samplers included letters, numbers, poems, and animals. Look at the sampler below and see if you can answer all of the questions.

Questions:

- How many birds can you find?
- What letter is missing from the alphabet?
- When was this sampler created?
- What was the name of the girl who created this sampler?
- How old was the girl when she created the sampler?
