

NAME: _____

FILL IN THE BLANK:

REINVENTING NEW HAMPSHIRE FARMS

Use the word bank below to fill in the missing words.

- In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, New Hampshire farmers started producing dairy products, such as _____, _____, and _____.
- New Hampshire's early factories used water power to turn _____ into _____.
- Although the soil is very rocky, the three crops that did well for early New Hampshire farmers were _____, _____, and _____.
- After the _____, many of New Hampshire's men did not want to be farmers anymore.
- After the 1830s, cloth made from _____ became more popular than cloth made from wool.
- In addition to dairy products, the other popular product that came from New Hampshire was _____.
- The University of New Hampshire started off as an _____ college, which taught young people about the _____ of farming.
- Governor Frank _____ created Old Home Day, which celebrated farm life in New Hampshire towns.
- The New Hampshire _____ was created to provide services and fun social events for rural communities.
- During the Great Sheep Boom, there were twice as many _____ as there were _____ in New Hampshire!

Word Bank

Wheat
Ice
People
Milk
Grange
Rollins
Agricultural Cotton
Cheese
Thread
Corn
Butter
Civil War
Science
Rye
Sheep
Wool