

NAME: _____

CROSSWORD PUZZLE: CHANGING TIMES ON THE FARM

Down:

1. A word used to describe the practice of growing specific crops during specific seasons for food.
3. A part of the United States that has more land, better soil conditions, and a longer growing season than New Hampshire.
4. As New Hampshire's towns grew and became more settled, colonists switched from farming as a community to farming for their own families. This type of farming is called _____ farming.
5. After the Civil War, many of New Hampshire's abandoned farms became _____ homes for wealthy tourists.
6. A word used to describe the soft curly hair cut from a sheep that is spun to make yarn or thread.

Across:

2. A word used to describe money in any form.
7. Both the Abenaki and the early English settlers farmed as a community, meaning that everyone helped to grow and harvest the crops. This type of farming is called _____ farming.
8. During the Great Sheep Boom, farmers built _____ to keep their sheep from wandering away.
9. New Hampshire has a very _____ growing season, which lasts from May to October.
10. A _____ house is a type of farm building that has been added to over time to give a farming family more space and storage.

