

NAME: _____

FILL IN THE BLANK: REFORMING SOCIETY

Use the word bank below to fill in the missing words.

1. Schools were expected to teach children what they needed to know in order to become good _____ when they grew up.
2. _____ was a well-known abolitionist speaker. He wrote an autobiography about his escape from slavery to help convince people that slavery was wrong.
3. _____ is another word for abolitionism.
4. Reformers worked together to fix society's many _____ so that everyone's lives could be made better.
5. During the _____ and _____, children had to work on their families' farms and could not go to school.
6. Sarah Josepha Hale's story, "Mary Had A Little Lamb," is just one example of the many books and _____ rhymes that were written just for children in the early 19th century.
7. During the Petition Campaign, abolitionists gathered thousands of _____ on petitions asking the U.S. government to end slavery.
8. Writing newspaper articles about how slavery was wrong and should be abolished was an example of _____.
9. Textile mills in New Hampshire were dependent on enslaved people in the South to supply the _____ needed to make cloth.
10. One of the new subjects children learned about in school had to do with _____. They learned about how the United States won its independence from Great Britain and how the American government works.

Word Bank

Cotton

Nursery

Citizens

Spring

Signatures

Problems

Frederick
Douglass

Patriotism

Moral suasion

Antislavery

Fall