

FIND YOUR WAY: CHANGING SOCIETY

During the Age of Reform, many Americans wanted to solve society's problems so that everyone's lives could be made better. But making big changes in society was, and still is, very difficult!

Imagine you are a reformer who would like to solve a problem in your community. Can you figure out this maze to try and convince people that your idea will work?

Start here

End here