

A CONCORD COACH FOR EVERY JOURNEY

The Abbot-Downing Company made a variety of coaches for different purposes. Circle the starting scenario you like best. Then draw a line through the correct “stages” to make it to your destination.

|                          |   |   |   |
|--------------------------|---|---|---|
| You are the:      | Manager of a hotel near Mt. Washington.   | Station agent at the rail depot in Amherst.   | Owner of a freight shipping company.  |
| You have a:       | Nine-passenger Eastern-style coach, with glass windows and extra seats for passengers on the roof.        | Twelve-passenger Western-style coach, with wider wheels for navigating rough western roads. | Four-passenger Eastern-style coach for trips to nearby towns with passengers and mail deliveries. |
| You need:         | Two horses  | Four horses   | Six horses  |
| You are going to: | Take the daily mail and three people who got off at your station to the general store in the town center. | Drive your guests to see The Old Man of the Mountain and The Flume Gorge.                   | Deliver goods to stores over 100 miles away from the nearest rail depot.                          |
